

"The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet."

Aristotle

"The boys [and girls] of the 'Rising Generation' are to be the men [and women] of the next, and the sole guardians of the principles we deliver over to them."

Thomas Jefferson

"Education is the key to unlock the golden door of freedom."

George Washington Carver

"The great aim of education is not knowledge but action."

Herbert Spencer

"The philosophy of the classroom today will be the philosophy of government tomorrow."

Abraham Lincoln

"Freedom is never more than one generation from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day, we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free."

Ronald Reagan
